

Diabetes Education Programs Serving Vermonters

These programs help you understand all the ways your health team, your medications and your actions manage diabetes. They are led by healthcare professionals who are certified diabetes educators, in all areas of the state. These programs work together with the Healthier Living Workshops for Diabetes to improve how you take care of yourself.

Brattleboro Memorial Hospital*

Brattleboro (802) 251-8429

Central Vermont Medical Center*

Barre (802) 371-4378

Berlin (802) 371-5903

Sylvia Gaboriault Wellness Services LLC

Montpelier (802) 249-1218

Community Health Centers of the Rutland Region*

Brandon (802) 247-6305

Castleton (802) 468-5641

West Pawlet (802) 645-0580

Rutland (802) 773-3386

Copley Hospital Diabetes Education Program

Morrisville (802) 888-8226

Cottage Hospital Diabetes Education*

Woodsville, NH (603) 747-9000

University of Vermont Medical Center*

For Children: Pediatric Diabetes and Endocrinology

Burlington (802) 847-6200

For Adults: Endocrinology & Diabetes

South Burlington (802) 847-4576

Gifford Medical Center

Randolph (802) 728-7715

Mount Ascutney Hospital and Health Care Center*

Windsor (802) 674-7198

North Country Hospital

Newport (802) 334-4155

Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital*

St. Johnsbury (802) 748-7433

Northwestern Medical Center*

St. Albans (802) 524-8849

Porter Medical Center

Middlebury (802) 388-4723

Rutland Diabetes and Endocrinology Center*

Rutland (802) 775-7844

Southwestern Vermont Medical Center

Bennington (802) 447-4564

Springfield Medical Care Systems

Springfield (802) 886-8998

The Health Center

Plainfield (802) 454-8336

Veterans Administration*

White River Junction (802) 295-9363 ext 5774

Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center*

Lebanon, NH (603) 653-9877 for Children's Services

(603) 650-8630 for Adult's Services

* Accredited by the American Association of Diabetes Educators or recognized by the American Diabetes Association.